AMEND Senate Bill No. 2067

House Bill No. 1932*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 62-5-102, is hereby amended by designating the existing language as subsection (a) and by adding the following language as a new subsection (b):

(b) The provisions of this chapter do not apply to a county-owned cemetery of a county having a population in excess of eight hundred thousand (800,000), according to the 2000 federal census or any subsequent federal census, nor to employees of such county in the following circumstances:

(1) The disposition of the human remains by such county or employee of such county in the county-owned cemetery does not include nor involve in any way embalming the body or in any way preparing the human remains for burial;

(2) The disposition of the human remains is specifically limited to interring the human remains in the county-owned cemetery of such county;

(3) Such county-owned cemetery is not operated for profit and no charge is made by the county for such interment;

(4) Other than the limited application of the definition of "funeral directing" in § 62-5-101(6)(A) involving such disposition of the human remains, no other actions describing funeral directing in such subdivision are practiced by nor apply to the county-owned cemetery.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming law, the public welfare requiring it.
